The Daily Courant.

Monday, April 6. 1713.

Vienna, March 29.

'A Courier is arrived from Barcelo-'na, with Letters of the 27th 'of February, importing, that 'they expected there Daily the 'Engliſh Fleet from Port-Mahon. His Im-'perial Majeſty has nominated Prince An-'thony of Litchtenſtein to go to meet the 'Empreſs, and conduct her through Italy 'hither; for this end that Prince has frequent 'Conferences with the Count de Paar great 'Maſter of the Poſts, to regulate with him the 'Carriages; and Orders are given for mend-'ing the Roads by which her Imperial Majeſty 'is to paſs: 'Tis thought the Emperour will 'go but to Lintz to receive her, the Em-'preſs being to come down the River Inn. 'The ſame Letters from Barcelona intimate, 'that there will be occaſion for three Tranſ-'portations for entirely evacuating Catalo-'nia, becauſe above one hundred Families 'of Spaniards have reſolved to leave the 'Country with their Wives and Children. 'General Thaun is on his Departure to 'his Viceroyalty of Naples. There is no 'Talk at preſent of Prince Eugene's Depar-'ture for Holland. His Pruſſian Majeſty 'has declared M. Merlin, formerly his Agent 'and Secretary here, his Reſident. Prince 'Eſterhaſi Palatine of Hungary died the 26th 'Inſtant at Eiſenſtad, much lamented for his 'great Merit.

Berlin, April 4. 'His Pruſſian Majeſty 'went Yeſterday to Mittenwalde: He will 'paſs to Morrow and the next Day at Deſ-'ſau, whence he will continue his Journey 'into the Country of Magdebourg, to ſee 'his Troops which are returned from Italy 'paſs in Review near Wettin: This whole 'Journey will not take up above 10 or 12 'Days: His Majeſty has no Miniſters in his 'Retinue, but has with him Lieutenant-Ge-'neral Arnheim who commanded the ſaid 'Troops, and other General Officers, with 'the Privy Counſellor Katſch. His Majeſty 'ſeems to deſign to amaſs great Treaſures, and 'tis ſaid ſuch Diſpoſitions are already made 'that he will lay up an hundred thouſand 'Crowns every Month. The Number and 'Quantity of Jewels, Plate, and other rich 'Houſhold-Goods left by the deceaſed King, 'is hardly to be deſcribed. 'Tis ſaid his 'preſent Majeſty has reſolved to augment 'to Pay of every Soldier a Penny a Day, to 'prevent their injuring his Subjects for want 'of ſufficient Subſiſtance. 'Tis ſaid likewiſe, 'that he has augmented the Salaries of the 'Miniſters of the French Refugees in the 'Country to 400 Crowns each, inſtead of '2 or 300 which they had before.

PARIS.

'Father Juvency, a famous Writer among 'the Jeſuites, having in his late Hiſtory of 'that Society taken Occaſion to vilify the 'Parliament of Paris for their expelling the 'Jeſuites out of France in 1595, upon the 'Attempt of John Chatel a Diſciple of theirs 'to aſſaſſinate King Henry IV; and alſo to 'aſſert and juſtify, ſlily yet not obſcurely, 'the Doctrine of removing Crowned Heads 'out of the Way by Poiſon or Dagger when 'tis for the Advancement of the Roman-'Catholick Intereſt; our Parliament found 'themſelves obliged to proceed to cenſure 'that Author and his Book; which the Je-'ſuites here having timely Intimation of, 'they deſired Leave to appear before them 'by the Provincial and other Principals of 'their Society here, and to declare their 'Diſapprobation of that Part of the ſaid 'Hiſtory, with their Abhorrence of the 'Doctrine it favoured. Accordingly thoſe 'Fathers appearing the 23d of March 1713, 'made ſuch a Declaration before the Par-'liament as they had firſt prevailed with the 'Court of Verſailles to accept for Satis-'factory; and the Society have ſo good 'Friends at Court, that the Parliament was 'influenced to Spare the Author, and only 'to order the Book to be ſuppreſſed, inſtead 'of Condemning it to be torn and burnt by 'the Hangman, as was expected. [The Ar-reſt of the Parliament on this Subject, ſhall be in-ſerted in a ſucceeding Paper.]

Utrecht, April 11. 'The three Plenipo-'tentiaries of the States-General, viz. M. 'Randwyck, van der Duſſen, and Renſ-'woude, who went from hence ſome Days 'ago to the Hague, came back Yeſterday; 'and the States-General, as well as the States 'of the Province of Holland, having after 'mature Deliberation given them full Power 'to Sign the Peace, their High Mightyneſſes 'Plenipotentiaries will all take on them the 'Caracter of Ambaſſadors, and Sign ac-'cordingly. [They did ſo about 3 a Clock 'in the Morning of April 12, the Plenipo-'tentiaries of Great-Britain, France, Portu-'gal, King of Pruſſia, and Duke of Savoy having signed the Day before.] On Sunday last Count Sinzendorf made a Report to the Miniſters Plenipotentiaries of the Empire, of the Diſpatches brought by the laſt Courier from France: viz. That Crown will not accept any of the Expedients propoſed concerning the Reſtoration of the Elector of Bavaria, but inſiſts abſolutely on the unconditional and immediate Reverſion of the upper Palatinate to the Houſe of Bavaria, after the Death of the preſent Elector Palatine and his Brother Charles, ſo that if theſe ſhould have Children, the ſaid Reverſion muſt take Place. Further, France demands peremptorily for the Elector of Bavaria by this Peace, the County of Cham and the reſt of the Dominions of Bavaria, the Iſland of Sardinia with the Title and Dignity of King; and beſides, Satisfaction with reſpect to the Treaty of Heverſheim, without condeſcending to explain before the Concluſion of the Peace what that Satisfaction muſt be, but in the mean while the Elector is to have the Propriety of the Countries and Places in the Netherlands which King Philip has made over to him. As for Italy, France will not let the Emperour have any more there than what he has acquired and conquered from the Monarchy of Spain, but demands that he reſtore the other Countries, without hearing what he or the Empire may have to ſay thereupon. The Barrier of the Empire to be the ſame with that given it by the Treaty of Ryſwick, with Landau added to it. France allows to the firſt of June for the Emperour and Empire to take their Reſolutions hereupon, but without granting a Ceſſation of Arms during that Time.
